

Tours of R.C.M.P. Barracks Feature of Police Week

The local cop shop isn't such a bad place after all -- at least, that's what about 150 people found out during open house at the R.C.M.P. office in Drayton Valley last week.

In conjunction with Canadian Police Week, the local detachment decided to open its doors and show the public just what the policeman's lot is all about.

The greatest attractions appeared to be the breathalyzer and drugs display -- apparently the public is concerned about the alcoholic and drug addiction problems.

"The Breathalyzer," Constable Bob Swift, one of the eight members of the Drayton Valley detachment, explained, "is used to hopefully reduce the death rate by keeping impaired drivers off the highways."

"It's compulsory for a person to blow into the instrument at the demand of a peace officer," he said. "We have had some cases where the reading has been so high that the person has been taken directly to hospital for immediate medical attention."

Constable Swift explained the Breathalyzer also gives a non-stop reading with methyl and wood alcohol -- both of which are poisonous to the system.

Basically, the breath is bubbled through a container, to which two acids (potassium dichromate and sulfuric acid) will react if the breath contains any alcohol. If a chemical reaction occurs, the acid will change color; as the color changes, more light passes through and gives the meter reading.

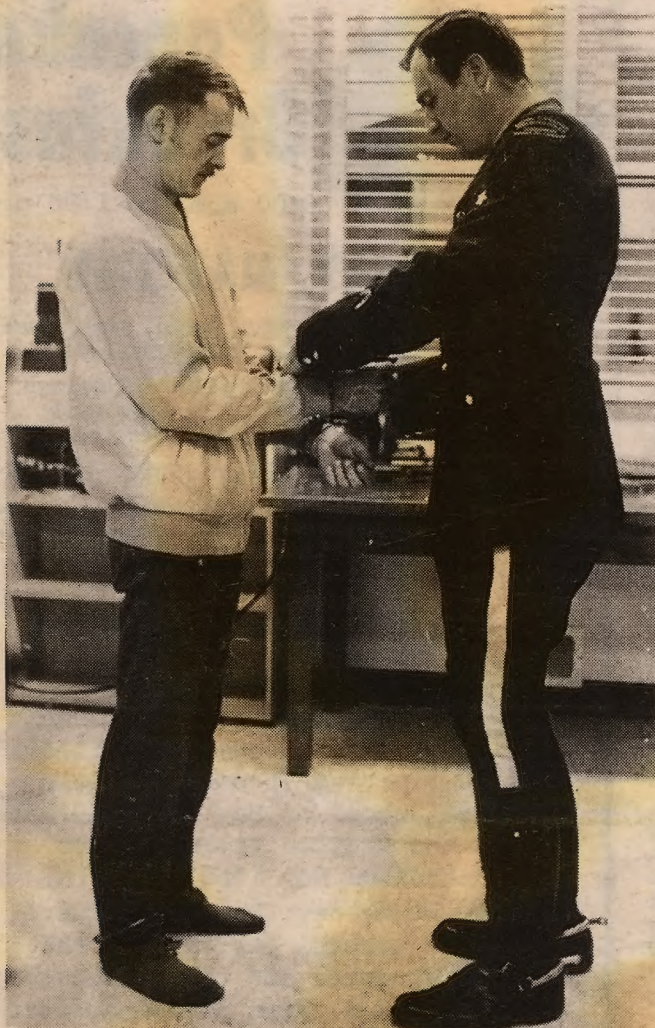

"There is nothing that will go wrong with the machine that will give a high reading," he said.

Police have two types of fingerprinting devices -- one, a smaller kit used on cases where fingerprints may lead to identification at the scene of the crime; the other, a unit for passport purposes

MARCH PLANS GOING AHEAD

Preparations for the Miles for Millions walk-a-thon are going strong, according to the Miles for Millions committee members.

Pledge sheets for Lieutenant-Governor Grant McEwan have been placed in the Royal Bank, the Treasury Branch, Valley Drugs, and Pembina Drugs. Anyone wishing to make a pledge may do so at any time before the walk.

Pledge sheets for the team competition are out at the banks, Bambees, and Getzingers. Everyone is reminded that a trophy is offered for high points earned in team competition. Teams consist of three members, three points per mile walked, and one point per dollar earned.

Pledge sheets will be available at the schools May 25, and also at Bambees and Getzingers.

The Miles for Millions committee this year has decided to keep a larger percentage of the pledges for local use--10 per cent will go to Oxfam and 90 per cent will remain in Drayton Valley.

Tentatively, the route has been set as the same as last year--beginning at the Civic Centre at 8:00 a.m., walking west and toward Easyford, back toward Rocky Rapids, and home through the coulee.

To avoid confusion Saturday morning, registration will also take place the previous evening. It is hoped this will allow more walkers to start with the gun Saturday.

Nursing Bursary Available

The Drayton Valley Chapter of R.N.s will give a bursary again this year to anyone entering the nursing profession from this area.

Twenty-five dollars will be given on proof of entry to a school of nursing and another $25 will be given after the person has completed three months of training in the school.

The bursary is not given for high academic standard alone. A committee has been set up to decide who merits the bursary and who is in most need of it. Application forms may be picked up at the Medical Centre. These must be filled in and must be accompanied by a letter from the applicant stating reasons for entering the nursing profession and the reason for applying for the bursary.

These letters and applications are to be mailed to Mrs. Marion Palmer of Drayton Valley.

Wabamun W.I. Members Guests of Drayton Group

Nine visitors, eight of them from Wabamun, and seven members attended the regular meeting of the Women's Institute held in the Anglican Parish Hall.

You are asked to remember the W.I. annual plant and bake sale to be held in Blocks Store on Saturday, May 27th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Proceeds go toward meeting expenses of the Flower Show to be held in August.

Mrs. Oscar has been transferred to Edmonton. She has been a most valued member of our branch and we are going to miss not only the help she gave so willingly but her cheery presence.

Any young person interested in attending a Co-operative Youth Seminar at Gold Eye Lake is asked to contact 542-3451 for further information or call at the library during regular hours.

The constituency conference will be held at Wabamun this year on May 31st. Registration will be at 9:00 a.m.

The June meeting will be held on Saturday, the 24th and will take the form of a visit to Devon Botanical Gardens.

W.I. members will take a survey of the tree planting project at the old cemetery with a view to replacing any trees which may have died. It is hoped that the upholstery on the wheel chair can be replaced since it is rather badly worn.

Mrs. McDavid, District Home Economist, demonstrated fondue cooking. Mrs. McDavid announced that there will be a judging school held at Silver Slipper No. 2 on the Exhibition Grounds on June 15th. Registration fee is one dollar. Lunch will not be provided but there is a cafeteria on

Did you notice that Miss Connie Jones, foster daughter of Mrs. Howard Pickup and the late Mr. Pickup, is now wearing a lovely diamond on the significant finger?

Relatives came from all directions to help Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dubeau celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. From Ontario there were: Mr. Arthur Dubeau, and two sister-in-laws, Mrs. Anne Dubeau and Mrs. Delma Dellcourt also a nephew and his wife from Ontario. From Rocky Mountain House was Mrs. Dubeau's mother, Mrs. Fillinger, her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Art McKervy and brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Victor Fillinger, all of Calgary. and identification in indictable offences.

Constable Swift explained that fingerprinting records can now be erased after five years on a certain offence.

Every detachment is radio-equipped, the radio having a local channel and an Edmonton channel.

"No one can tune into the police frequency," Constable Swift said, "but if by chance someone does, he can be charged for the offense."

The Edmonton channel can be used for quick identification purposes, such as license registration. If the license number is known, the name of the one who is registered under that number can be obtained within about three minutes.

Radar has become an important part of highway traffic control, and Alberta detachments will soon be equipped with an improved radar system. At present, the radar system used on the car window can receive vehicles coming or going. Like the Breathalyzer, it is virtually fool-proof. A calibrated tuning fork is used to check the radar and calibration of the meter before the police check is set up.

Other standard equipment in any police detachment includes guns, leg irons, handcuffs, camera, bullets, books containing all Canadian and Alberta acts from criminal to women's rights, and of course, the cells.

Those who toured the office were shown samples of hashish, spoons used for melting the drugs, and types of syringes drug addicts use. Two films were shown, one on traffic and the other on drugs.

On the local detachment are: Sgt. Thorstad, Cpl. McDowell, Const. Swift, Const. Thoreson, Const. Ross, Const. Grotkowski, Const. Whittington, and Const. Humphreys. They hope that the open house proved to be of some benefit to those who attended, and hope it showed what the police are doing to protect the public.

YOUR M.L.A. REPORTS

RUSTY ZANDER, M.L.A.

There is a greater feeling of progress in the Legislature as we are nearing the end of the second last week in May, and many pieces of legislation are moving rapidly than before. The Government's main plan - relief for the senior citizens, mentally ill, permanently disabled and the family farm - followed by incentives to agricultural marketing, small business and tourism, is clearly unfolding.

We have moved a lot of legislation into committee stage and have finished the large budgets for education, health and welfare, which account for better than 70% of all provincial spending.

Agreement on both sides of the House has been achieved on the handling of the Oil Royalty Hearings beginning on May 23rd at 9:00 a.m. Some 36 briefs have been received from various organizations and oil companies to date. After reading about a half dozen to date, it is quite apparent that there are only two views expressed - one that the revenue received by the province now is enough and the other of course is that we should get more. Therefore, working with these two extremes, it is apparent that it will be hard indeed to come up with a suitable solution.

All M.L.A.s are working very hard and are on many committees. Our day now begins about 7:00 a.m. with two meetings before the House opens at 2:30 p.m. and on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings we complete our day's work anywhere from 11:30 p.m. or 1:00 a.m. the next day. This has to be done if we hope to get out of this sitting by June 9th.

On May 19th the Law, Amendments Committee heard briefs on the new Surface Rights Act. Only about 10 have been received to date, and many good recommendations have been received. The Committee will study the Bill in light of proposed amendments and will report back to the Legislature at or about June 2nd.

Your M.L.A. will introduce amendments to Sections 6, 98 and 100 of The Provincial Planning Act, making possible for some cities to bring their general plan in line with the Act, as requested by the Alberta Urban Association in their request to our government.

If any reader has any urgent problems, he may drop me a line at Room 513, Legislative Building, Edmonton, or call 429-4631 and leave your phone number and I will contact you as soon as I receive your message.

BEWARE HINTS TO CONSUMERS

The University of Alberta through the School of Household Economics offer a new textile testing service to consumers. Many of the problems were from consumers dissatisfied with an article they have sent to a dry cleaner's. It is true that dry cleaners have a problem cleaning some fabrics. The results of 400 samples tested showed 22% proved to be the fault of the dry cleaner, 20% the manufacturer's fault, 16% the consumer's fault and 33% were from natural deterioration of fabric (i.e. draperies or unknown).

Common Problems: Car-amalized sugar (i.e. pop) becomes visible only after dry cleaning because of the heat in dry cleaning.

White wool sweaters-yellow sections-because consumer had left it folded in the sun. Color change in fabrics-because of chemical content in dye or fabric finish, or a stain or perspiration, or exposure to daylight or artificial light in closet. Color bleeding-unstable color can be lifted with water, Scotch-guarding, or dry cleaning solvent.

PVC fabrics (polyvinyl Chloride, tradenames Rhon-yl, Rovana, etc.) colors run because not stable, and knits stretch excessively if not dried properly.

PVC vinyl trim-becomes brittle and shrinks when it is cleaned. Acetates--knits stretch out of shape if not dried properly. Acrylics--distort with steam heat.

Suede and leather should be sent to specialists, because they lose natural oils in regular dry cleaning.

As you can see the consumer sometimes makes the first mistake when taking articles to the dry cleaner. When taking articles to be cleaned know what the fabric is (keep hang tags) and try to remember what the stain is and tell your dry cleaner. WHAT'S THIS SPRING

Here are some of the new or renewed ideas for this spring: red, white and blue are great spring colors this year. Also yellow and navy in combination are coming on strong. Nautical look--sailor clothes, anchor and ship motifs, blazers, breton hats. Chinese influence--mandarin collars, straight jackets and dresses with side slits, frog closings. Classic look--shirtwaists, seersucker fabric. Bared backs, batwing or dolman sleeves, tent shapes which are slim fitting through the bodice and flared below. Oxford bag-pants are the "latest".

"Sizzlers" - a micromini dress with bikini pants beneath. Hot pants cooled off and this is the new spark in fashion. Longdresses in peasant look. Arnel fabric predominant.

District Home Economist G. McDavid commented on the work the girls did throughout the year. Mrs. McDavid, Mrs. R. Cowie, Leo Hofmann, Connie Leckie, Mr. Langford, Mr. A. McLeod and Mrs. B. MacDougall were all thanked for their part in helping the girls.

A fashion show of the articles made by each girl had Karen Tufty as commentator. Kathy Beach spoke on different types of figures, with Dianne Hofmann telling of the year's activities, and Leo Hofmann speaking on behalf of the sponsoring TeenTown.

A skit was done by all the girls and gifts were presented to Mrs. Cowie for the use of the church basement and to each of the leaders. The Achievement Day winner, announced by Penny Thomas, was Leslie Sullivan and the proficiency winner was Kathy Beach with the runner-up being Beverly Cameron.

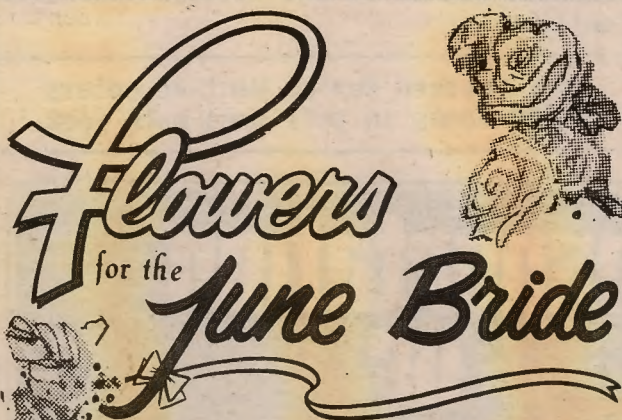

Members of the club are Bev Cameron, Dianne Hofmann, Kathy Beach, Kathy Smith, Leslie Sullivan, and Debby Lewiski, with the leaders being Phyllis Brown, Penny Thomas and Karen Tufty. The evening closed with "God Save the Queen", after which lunch was served.

Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.

Canada's old age pensioners and veterans got a much deserved break from Finance Minister John Turner in his recent budget.

Rising living costs have been hitting particularly hard at persons who rely on pensions for their support. The government recognized this two years ago when it increased the old age pension to $80 per month and the Guaranteed Income Supplement plus pension to a maximum of $135. At about the same time pensions and allowances to veterans and their dependents were also substantially increased.

In spite of these increases the cost pressures continued on this broad group of Canadians more so than on others. In the words of Mr. Turner:

"They are the chief victims of inflation because they are the least able of any group in our society to protect themselves against it. We have come to the conclusion, therefore, that we have a duty as a nation to ensure that the elderly and veterans will be relieved of the hardship of a declining standard of living by helping them to meet the burden of the rising costs. I think everyone would agree that these are very special groups."

Changes announced in the budget which will benefit these groups include annual increases in the basic old age security pension, veterans' pensions and allowances to keep in step with the full cost of living, effective January 1, 1972.

Maximum payments under the guaranteed income supplement will be increased by $15 for single pensioners and $30 a month for married couples, again effective January 1, 1972.

Income tax exemptions are also being raised for all pensioners from $2,150 to $2,600 for single pensioners and from $2,900 to $3,850 for a married couple, effective January 1, 1972.

Additional benefits will also be provided to handicapped persons and to students.

The major thrust of the budget was to provide incentives to the private sector of the economy to create more jobs and to stimulate greater processing of raw materials in Canada.

In the words of Mr. Turner it was a budget "to buttress the Canadian economy--to provide incentives for Canadian industry to grow and compete and provide jobs", and "to render justice to those people in our community who have been hurt by the rise in the cost of living and who have no way of fighting back."

Holiday Starts Another Summer Season

The 24th of May holiday traditionally announces the end of the snow and slush season and the start of another beautiful summer.

Victoria Day was apparent in the community with empty homes over the long weekend as residents opened summer cabins or enjoyed weekend holiday trips.

With the start of another summer season the Red Cross Water Safety Service urges you to play it safe.

If your family enjoys boating, be sure your craft is in good running condition before you take your first outing. Give your boat a thorough spring clean-up. Take winter rust off all equipment. Inspect docking facilities. Check the condition of your government approved lifejackets. Be sure they're in good condition and that everyone, especially children, knows how to use them.

If you and your family plan to do some swimming, make sure everyone is in shape to swim.

If children don't know how to swim give them a chance to learn properly. Contact your Red Cross Water Safety Service and ask about local swimming programs.

Observe simple water safety rules. Swim only in supervised areas. Always swim with a buddy. Keep children in sight at all times.

Now that Victoria Day has come and gone, enjoy the water and the weather. But remember to include safety in your plans. That way you can be sure the spring and summer months will be the "kindest months of all" for you and your family.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By KEVIN PETERSON

Social workers, psychologists and nurses will be enlisted to extend Alberta's mental health services under a new Mental Health Act presented to the Legislature last week.

The new act takes aim at the problem of providing qualified people to treat the mentally ill by creating a new class of "therapists" which will reduce the dependence on psychiatrists.

A licensing board will be created—likely this fall—which will have the power to test and recognize the second level health workers. They then will work as part of teams headed by psychiatrists to decentralize mental health services.

Four years ago the Blair report on mental health reform condemned Alberta's system for taking patients far away from their homes and placing them in huge institutions. The cure rate was low and could be greatly improved - and long-range costs reduced - if treatment was carried on at the local level, the report said.

General hospitals now bear an increasing load of mentally ill patients, particularly in Edmonton and Calgary, but staffing problems have led many rural areas to balk at implementing the report.

"The prompt delivery service, particularly in rural areas, requires the use of greater number of workers in the community," Health and Social Development Minister Neil Crawford said.

"The act is recognizing the contribution which can be made by those who have been well-trained in the behavioral sciences."

Smaller centres may well have therapists who can do the job under the advice of a professional," he said. "We have broadened the front for treatment and now will follow up on it."

The minister said the province does not know how many therapists will have to be licensed but intends to continue recognizing them until it feels services are being provided at an adequate level.

Another feature of the new legislation aimed at encouraging decentralization is the provision for regional advisory councils, which will work in conjunction with a provincial advisory council.

The province hopes the advisory groups with their local knowledge will be able to aid significantly in bringing the best possible care with the dollars available.

The new legislation also brings voluntary admission and release procedures in line with general hospitals by eliminating the 72-hour release waiting period for those who voluntarily committed themselves. It provides more frequent access to tribunals which hear complaints against detention but does not change detention procedures for those committed under the criminal code.

Food Poisoning Noted In Health Unit Report

In the Edson Health Unit annual report released recently by Medical Officer of Health Helmut Kohlhepp, two outbreaks of staphylococci food poisoning were reported in the Health Unit's area.

One outbreak was reported in July of 1971 after a wedding reception. Some 38 persons were affected, some requiring hospitalization. The most likely source of this infection was traced and steps were taken to avoid a recurrence.

A further incidence of possibly the same type of outbreak in a different part of the Health Unit area occurred after a banquet late in 1971, but the source was untraceable.

The report indicates a decrease in reported cases of Rubella from 93 in 1970 to only 18 in 1971, and in Rubella from 112 in 1970 to 16 in 1971. The reported cases of other communicable diseases remained within the same range as in the previous year.

In June and September, 1970 a relatively small number of school children was found to be infested with head lice (pediculosis). However, in February, 1971, an infestation, this time a much larger degree, was discovered. All efforts of the Health Unit to bring the situation under control were in vain since the cooperation of a number of people who had recently come from eastern Canada and Europe could not be obtained.

By the beginning of April, the infestation had reached epidemic proportions, but through full cooperation and authority, the epidemic was eradicated by the end of April. The inception of a voluntary control system for new residents coming to the community has prevented any new large spread of ped-iculosis.

Services by nurses to school pupils increased to 16,183 in 1971, due to growing school population in Grande Cache and the multi head checks made during the pediculosis outbreak.

In such areas as the Travelling Speech Pathology and Audiology Clinic, the home visiting, Pre-Natal Classes, Travelling Child Guidance Clinic, tuberculosis control, social hygiene and dental services, the cooperation has been excellent.

Under Environmental Hygiene, all municipal water supplies were checked regularly and all samples were found bacteriologically satisfactory. The Village of Evansburg began construction of a water treatment plant which would improve the turbidity problem prevalent during heavy run-off periods. Drayton Valley installed a water line from the river and the treatment plant construction will soon be underway.

A joint survey of all Mobile Home Parks was conducted with the Provincial Board of Health and, as a result, a plan for the upgrading of all non-conforming Parks has been instituted.

The report showed that, in general, the standard of restaurants is good, however, there are several operations that are a constant problem. Inspections of all food outlets were made in conjunction with the new Food and Drink Regulations which requires an annual permit from the local Board of Health. Several outlets were required to make improvements.

In Mr. Kohlhepp's conclusion to the Edson Health Unit's report, he felt that some lack of understanding of the value of preventive health services in regards to future savings in active treatment of diseases still exists.

HART CANTELON

Dear Mr. Cantelon:

I wonder if you could let me know what guidelines you would consider fair for boys 15 and 16 years old. I would like to know about number of evenings out; time to be in at night, etc. I realize there may not be any set rules, and that there are always the exceptions to the rule, but I'd appreciate having your opinion as to a general rule. The oldest boy has his driver's license and should be given permission to use the family car, and if so, how often? Neither of these boys is doing well at school, and that is a big concern to me, although I realize that by keeping them in they may not be doing schoolwork all that time either. They may rebel against this. For these days, could you also suggest a weekly allowance? We have two other boys, younger, in the family.

Signed: A Parent

Dear Parent:

For a general rule, students in High School should be in Monday thru Thursday, if they expect to produce to capacity at the school level. The exception is programmed activity such as hockey, swimming, music, driving class, etc. Then, homework is planned to fit in. But no nights just out, during this part of the week. Friday and Saturday nights no later than midnight, and it has been cleared ahead with you as to what the plans are for those two nights. A boy with his driver's license should be permitted the car once a week. Once again he explains what he intends to do, where he expects to go, and that you approve of the mileage involved. Allowances will vary depending on what you expect him to cover with the allowance, and whether or not the boy smokes. Generally 3 to 5 dollars per week should cover the fun-aspect, more, if he is expected to cover car-fare, etc. You should discuss these guidelines with the school counsellor to make sure that he is willing to back you up so far as keeping up the school end is concerned. Work together with this counsellor as a husband-wife-counsellor team.

Dear Mr. Cantelon:

My daughter has been married six months. Yesterday she told us she is to have a baby in six weeks. How do you handle this situation? Say nothing or just pass it off as lightly as possible? How do we keep from showing our resentment toward the husband?

Dear Concerned:

By all means, accept this event as a happy prospect even though the circumstances disturb you. They have made a home for the child, and are facing the joy of their first child. Don't let any unfortunate details of the past destroy this. They may not have intended this to happen any more than you would wish it. Our own generation were guilty of this many times. If you try to forgive - and remember true forgiveness means forgetting - you'll find that you will have dealt with the resentment you are afraid might show through. Above all else you and your husband talk these things out with one another so that you work out any resentment this way rather than letting it destroy the relationship with your son-in-law.

AGRICULTURAL BURSARY

A reminder that the Agricultural Committee is again providing four $200 bursaries to students residing in the County of Parkland who plan to attend institutions such as (a) a recognized College of Agriculture or Veterinary College, leading to a degree in Agriculture or Veterinary Medicine. (b) school of Agriculture leading to a Diploma. (c) School of Home Economics. (d) Programs directly related to Agriculture in Community Colleges.

Because of the constant turnover of forage crops for hay and pasture in a rotation and perhaps because of the Federal Incentive Program, many producers will add to their forage acreage this spring.

The Federal incentive program puts no restriction on the use of forage lands or on the nurse crop which might be seeded with it. In general, companion crops are not recommended as they provide too much competition for light and moisture for the forage seedlings.

When a companion crop is grown, it should be seeded at half the normal rate in a separate operation, preferably cross-wise from the forage crop. Oats may be used but it is advised to cut it early for hay or silage to minimize competition.

Drilling the forage seed in the soil is better than broadcasting, but care must be taken to avoid seeding too deep - not over one inch deep. All broadcast seedings should be at heavier rates, then drill seedings should be followed by harrowing.

A little extra care in seeding preparation and seeding of forages will pay in better stands.

SCHOOL BUILDING PLACED INTO HOLDING PATTERN

A recent survey by the Department of Education indicates there are presently 800 vacant classrooms in Alberta. This does not include portable units not receiving full use, of which there are about 600 scattered throughout the province.

Education Minister, the Hon. Lou Hyndman, announced that as a result of the survey all new school building requests in Alberta will be placed into a "holding pattern."

In announcing this move, the Minister cited the dropping birth rate and the decreasing number of students entering grade one.

The number of students entering grade one in September, 1969 was 39,567; in September, 1970 the figure dropped to 39,128; and in September, 1971, the figure dropped still to 35,173.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics indicates that in Canada the birth rate in 1971 was 17.0 per 1000 population, down two per cent from 17.4 in 1970. Also, the general fertility rate (number of births per thousand women 15-49 years old) decreased three per cent to 68.8 from 70.9 in 1970. This also means that the average number of children per woman dropped by over four per cent to 2.21 in 1971 from 2.31 in 1970.

The number of births in Alberta in 1971 was 32,043 as compared to 31,544 in 1970, or an increase of only .3 per cent. The average change rate in Alberta for 1968-70 has been an increase of 3.0 per cent. That is, the number of births is still increasing but the rate of increase has dropped from 3.0 per cent in 1968-70 to .3 per cent in 1971.

The Minister said that only critical requests for new buildings will be entertained until such time as there is better indication of some sort of stabilization in birth rate and number of pupils entering school for the first time.

EDUCATIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION TO REPORT SOON

The report of the Commission on Educational Planning will be available to the public in mid-June from the Queen's Printer and other outlets. Entitled "A Choice of Futures", it highlights the issues and opportunities that lie ahead for Alberta's educational system. The report is intended to: (a) stimulate participatory and anticipatory planning for future education; (b) propose adaptations and changes in policy for all levels and forms of education so that future needs can be met; (c) indicate bases for priority judgments during the next decade; (d) suggest continuing structures and processes for the planning, coordination and administration of the total educational organization.

SCHOOL FOUNDATION PROGRAM REVISED

The regulations of the School Foundation Program Fund have been revised as originally planned by a recent provincial order-in-council. Classroom grants have been raised from $10,759 to $11,405. Support staff grants were increased from $10,812 to $11,461. The grants for transportation remain unchanged, except for school systems which own and operate their own buses where they exist. Administration, and debt retirement and capital grants remain the same as last year.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

High School students may register up to June 9, 1972 in summer session courses offered by the Correspondence School Branch. Students may take two summer courses for a maximum of An accordion solo was given by Laura MacRae and a show of hats that mother uses was put on by the younger girls. Mrs. R. Sperling and Rosemary Hofmann are credited with putting the program together.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lawley were hosted to a dinner at the Chateau Lacombe for Mother's Day. Miss Annie Lawley presented her sisters and mother with a corsage of white rosebuds. COMMON SNIPE (Wilson's snipe, Jack snipe).

This elusive member of the sandpiper family haunts the wet, muddy borders of marshes and sloughs. It is more or less solitary in habits but occasional groups may be encountered on migration. The long, straight bill is used to probe deep into wet mud for food. Nest is placed on the ground in a depression among grasses or other thick cover near water. Length about eleven inches. Jumps into flight with a harsh "craik-craik" call and wings away in a rapid, zig-zag flight.

YOUR M.L.A. REPORTS

PETER TRYNCHY, MLA

The Hon. Robert Dowling, Minister without Portfolio responsible for Tourism, has announced recently that Mayerthorpe, among other rural Alberta centres, will have local government projects this summer under the STEP program, which will provide the funds to pay wages for the students employed in these areas.

In addition, students will be employed in local government projects for playground supervision and clean-up in Whitecourt. Forests in the Whitecourt area will benefit from surveys, improvements, clean-up and planting carried out by students; and the Health and Social Development offices in Whitecourt will be assisted with clerical duties by students, who will be hired and paid by STEP.

Ron Gitter, M.L.A. (PC-Calgary Buffalo) has announced the addition of a sixth member to the Committee appointed to investigate liquor laws in the province of Alberta. I am happy to say that the new member is a resident of Fox Creek, Alberta, Mrs. Eleanor Thomson, and this therefore provides representation for the Whitecourt area on this Committee. Public hearings are tentatively scheduled for some time in September.

This week, we will be giving second reading to Bills 1, 2 and 33, which are: Bill 1--The Alberta Bill of Rights, introduced by the Hon. Premier Peter Lougheed; Bill 2--The Individual's Rights Protection Act, introduced by Ron Gitter, M.L.A.; and Bill 33--The Department of Advanced Education. These Bills should provide the House with some lively and interesting discussions, as members on both sides of the House give their opinions, both for and against.

The Oil Royalty Hearings are scheduled for May 23 to 26, and 53 briefs have been received. In addition, a number of briefs have been submitted to the M.L.A.'s for presentation. I am pleased to have received two briefs, one from Whitecourt Chamber of Commerce, and one from the Town of Whitecourt. I will be circulating these briefs to all members of the Legislature, and to the press. I am sure that as a result of these hearings we should come up with a program that will be both beneficial and acceptable to all Albertans.

People make the difference between the success or failure of any vacation trip. The Government of India Tourist Office offers several "People to People" programs for Canadian tourists visiting India.

People to People Program Popular Indian Attraction

ONE of the most common complaints voiced by experienced world travellers is the fact they never really get to meet and know the people of the country they are visiting. Tourists will agree that no matter how scenic a country, or how many historic treasures she has within her boundaries, people they meet make the difference between the success or failure of a trip. The Government of India Tourist Office has taken steps to insure that Canadians visiting India can familiarize themselves with typical Indian families by offering a "Paying Guest" scheme. Canadians, by contacting GITO offices in India, can arrange to stay with Indian families while in India at a nominal charge of from $4 to $6 per day. The GITO in India maintains a suitable list of families and facilities available to either single or married people. Facilities usually include a room, in some cases air-conditioned, with bath and breakfast. All meals can be included by prior arrangement with the family in question. This scheme is available in Bombay, Calcutta, Madras and Delhi. All families involved speak English, so language is no barrier.

The GITO also offers visitors a "People to People" program, where Canadian visitors of various professions can meet with Indians in allied fields to discuss mutual interests. This can apply to teachers, doctors, lawyers, architects and other professional people.

The GITO can arrange such meetings upon request at no charge, and has found in the past that such encounters have been most successful.

B.B.B. Asks Farmers To Beware of Farm Appraisers

The Edmonton Better Business Bureau is asking farmers who are approached by anyone offering to appraise their property to send the name of the individual and the name and address of his firm to the bureau.

According to information received by the Alberta department of agriculture, some people, inferring that they are employees of the department of national revenue, have been calling on farmers offering to value their property and leading the farmer to believe that the appraisal will be accepted automatically by the department of national revenue.

A spokesman for the department of national revenue says "Any appraisers now engaged in estimating values for owners are not employees of our department". He points out that his department's staff carry identification cards, bearing their photographs, and that they call only on taxpayers for a specific purpose relating to their tax returns.

There are two main points to remember about having your property valued for capital gains or losses. The first is that the valuation day value of the farm does not have to be filed with your income tax return until you transfer, sell, give away or otherwise dispose of your property. However, the job will be easier the sooner it is done after valuation day.

The second point is that you can value the property yourself or you can get somebody else to do it providing that the value placed on it can be adequately substantiated by documented evidence of similar sales in the district etc. The alternative is to have the property appraised by an accredited appraiser. Such an appraisal could be particularly valuable to a farmer whose property has not changed ownership for some years and who is not likely to be selling it in the immediate future.

Professionally qualified appraisers base their charge on the time, research and expense involved in establishing the estimated value of the property and in preparing the report to substantiate their value. Naturally, the cost will be higher if several years have elapsed between the time the appraisal is done and valuation day or if the appraisal is needed to contest an unsubstantiated valuation in court.

The department of national revenue's booklet entitled "Valuation Day" gives some guidelines on preparing valuations. Copies can be obtained from district taxation officers or from the Taxation Distribution Center, P.O. Box 8489, Ottawa, Ontario K1G 3L5.

With a curly tail.
Some tulips are pink,
With a little green leaf.
Maybe even a bath-tub
Full of water.
A book is pink,
With a kitten on the cover.
Some worms are pink,
Hanging on a hook.

WHAT IS BLUE?

What is blue?
The sky is blue,
And if you see it,
I will too.

What is blue?

The sea is blue.
And sometimes flowers
Are blue too.

What is blue?

A coat is blue,
In the winter
And summer too.

Work Experience Programs Underway at High School

Rhonda McQuaig receives experience in library arts at the Frank Maddock High School library during noon hours.

Seven High School students spend part of their school day gaining experience in the working field and receive 5 credits towards their High School Diploma if they complete a minimum of 125 hours on the job.

The program, initiated this year on a trial basis, was approved by the Department of Education, Board of Industrial Relations, and the Apprenticeship Branch.

City schools have enjoyed the program for several years now and have found that with proper coordination they successfully motivate and encourage students to remain in school. As well, it seems to better prepare students for work when they graduate and helps them make a choice as to the type of career that interests them.

This semester an attempt has been made to place one student in each of several types of occupations - merchandising, medical, education, and the oilfield. The employer has agreed to give daily on-the-job training to the student in the various aspects of that field.

To date the program generally seems to be a success. Employees have been very co-operative and students are enjoying the opportunity afforded them. Although two of the seven students have since withdrawn from the program, and from school, it is felt that with more careful screening of student applications next semester this difficulty will be eliminated.

Any business, company, institute, or individual who might consider assisting as an employer in forthcoming semesters are invited to contact the Frank Maddock High School for particulars (542-4401 or 542-4402).

Bonnie Mohn learns laboratory techniques by assisting at the Drayton Valley Municipal Hospital.

Donna Kerber assists in Lutheran kindergarten classes.

Bruce Chaput trains with Lyle Instruments.

Alder Flats News

The Winfield, Yeoford, Pendryl, Buck Lake and Alder Flats ladies who took the Lay Leadership course in Winfield this spring met at the Legion Hall in Alder Flats May 8. Sally Ward, instructor from Edmonton, attended as well as Celeste Miller, Home Economist of Wetaskiwin, and Sharon Seutter, Home Economist from Lacombe. There were 14 ladies present of the 20 who took the course.

The Alder Flats Lions had their first meeting at the Legion Hall May 8.

Mrs. Mary Speakman spent about nine days in the Rimbey hospital. Mary was back to the doctor on Saturday and was pleased to get a good report. Mary would like to thank everyone for their kindness shown her while in hospital and since returning home, to Doctor Boorman and all the nurses and especially to Margie Hammond who took care of tasks at home for her while she was away.

Johnny Speakman was home May 11. He has bought a house in Edmonton and will be moving his family as soon as school is out.

Art and Mary Speakman went to the eye specialist in Edmonton Friday and both are wearing new glasses. They stopped in Wetaskiwin on business and also stopped at the International Airport to make arrangements for their flight to Montreal in July and Sally's flight to Montreal in June. Sally will spend 10 days with her sister, Dorothy, her brother-in-law, Gerry, and her nephew, Kevin, and will spend seven days at home.

Mrs. Aileen Clemmer has returned from the Stony Plain hospital. She thanks Dr. Attisha and the nurses and says hello to her room mate Carol Micoll. Aileen's sister, Emma Donovan of Red Deer, is staying with her while she is convalescing.

Mrs. Paul Clemmer is at Poplar Valley taking care of Mrs. Thronson's children while she is visiting her daughter Norma at Port Albernie, B.C.

A thank-you to the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary for their donation of $200 to the Alder Flats Community Building Fund.

Recent weekend visitors at the Ole Bergquist home were George and Julie Bergquist and family of Drayton Valley. Congratulations to George who has been awarded an all-expense paid trip to Hawaii when he was chosen the best truck driver.

The Bush Whackers fast ball team played in the exhibition games in Wetaskiwin on a recent Saturday. They lost all their games, but better luck next time.

Steve Stefura was home for the weekend.

Mother's Day supper guests at the Harold Johnson home were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Johnson and family of Rimbey and Mrs. Mary Johnson of the Bashaw Valley Lodge. Harold's mother arrived on Friday and will be visiting at their home for a while.

Mrs. Shirley Shanks and Mrs. Joyce Hayduk attended Oilwives at Drayton Valley May 8.

LIBRARY NEWS

This week the library has a potpourri of new book arrivals. "The Meaning of Your Dreams" is rather fun, even though you may not believe what it says. "Care and Repair of Antiques" as the name suggests gives detailed instructions for the restoration of broken and neglected pieces. Also tells how to detect fakes.

"Macrame and Other Projects for Knitting Without Needles" is something the handicraft enthusiasts have been asking for. Also in the handicraft field there is a book on "Wool Stitchery".

"Successful Public Speaking" by Raymond Hull is designed to give one confidence. If you know exactly how to meet any situation, you are not likely to be nervous.

If you are interested in the origin of quotations, a book by Berga Evans entitled "Dictionary of Quotations" will hold interest for you. Can you place the following quotations? "A pound of flesh", "You can't pray a lie--I've found that out", "When the gods wish to punish us they answer our prayers", "The proof of the pudding is in the eating", "The fierce light that beats upon a throne and blackens every blot".

Even though you don't believe that handwriting gives an insight to personality, you will want to read "Handwriting Analysis" by Dorothy Sara.

If your golf game is not everything you desire why not see what the editors of "America's Golf Book" have to say. Book is well illustrated. "Decorating ideas for Every Room in Your House" is a truly beautiful-ly illustrated book.

Library hours are: Tuesday, 12-1:00, 3-5, and 7-9. Friday, 3-5 and 7-9. The library is in the Town Hall. Enter by the east door. Note: The library is now receiving Alberta Hansard regularly.

Buck Creek News

Mr. and Mrs. Ove Hanson of Port Albernie, B.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Poulsen and daughter from Denmark, arrived last Sunday to visit Harry Nielsen. They all spent a day visiting the Bjarne Knudskov family in Edmonton. The visitors left for home, returning via the Roger's Pass on Thursday.

Accidents do not just happen. A set of circumstances which frequently with a little foresight, could have been prevented, all too often costs a child's life or results in injury.

A landmark in Evansburg is being torn down. What was known as the Muldoon's Store will make way for a new home. The store was built by Mr. J. Mitchell and his son Tom in 1932. But due to the mine shutdown the store was closed from 1937 to 1943. In 1945 Mr. F. Muldoon bought it and ran the business until his retirement in 1961 when he sold out to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smilie. This couple sold the building to Mr. Antkow.

Work Experience Program at Evansburg

Sixteen grade 12 students participated in the Work Experience Program in Evansburg this semester in the following areas: office work - secretarial, office work - clerical, Gym assistant, library assistant, technical (A.G.T.), play school assistant, teacher aide (remedial reading), meat cutting, general stock clerking, lab assistant.

The employing agencies were: The Evansburg Village Office, Municipal Affairs Office, A.G.T., Community Play School, Save-Rite Grocery Store, Evansburg High School, Evansview Elementary School, and the Wildwood School.

Each student was required to have parental consent before undertaking the work experience, and introductory letters were sent to each prospective employer followed by an interview with the co-ordinator.

A letter of application for the job desired was submitted by each student, and in some instances, several students applied for the same position which gave the employer the privilege of making a choice on the basis of the application and a personal interview.

Each student submitted a timetable of the hours he or she would be available, and together with the employer, planned the working schedule. In some cases, the students have been supplied with a regular time sheet from the business firm and are learning how to make it out.

During the work experience, each student is evaluated by the employer as to his or her communication skills, vocational skills, personal qualities, and work qualities and habits which include dependability, responsibility, attitude, and consciousness. The co-ordinator visits the employers periodically to discuss the progress of the students, to answer questions, and to gather suggestions.

Possible employers in the school area that would like to participate in next year's program should contact Mrs. A. R. Weist at the Evansburg Junior-Senior High School.

Stuck Four Times Taken in Tow by Law

Four times stuck two months ago, two Edmonton youths received their towing bill Friday in provincial judge's court.

Robert Donald Jensen and Dale Stacey, both 17 and both of no fixed address, were sentenced to 18 months probation for possession of a stolen truck, resulting from an incident March 20.

The youths had been travelling to Evansburg when their car became stuck in spring mud.

Being near a provincial highways department equipment compound, they borrowed a half-ton truck to pull their car but it became stuck too.

So they tried a tow job with a dump truck but it also became mired in the mud.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsay, who are the proud parents of a baby boy, Shane Frederick, born May 10 and weighing 8 lbs. 6 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Matula had Mrs. Matula's brother, Lawrence Ginther of Edmonton, and her sister Sadie and husband George, visiting this weekend. They also visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ginther.

Read the Labels!

By law, every chemical utilized in today's agricultural production is labelled. The label contains information on the chemical composition of the product, mixing instructions, cautions and other information relevant to the product and its use.

You, the users of agricultural chemicals, have the responsibility of applying the product in accordance with the information contained on the label.

In 1971, western Canadian farmers invested millions of dollars in agricultural chemicals. Many derived the full benefits from the application of chemicals to crops and livestock, others did not. Why were some producers disappointed? Instructions improperly followed result in crop damage, poor control of the problem, pollution, injury to livestock, injury to the applicator, and last but not least, significant economic losses to the producer of agricultural goods.

Do your part, and ask yourself this question, are you willing to accept the responsibility for the improper use of agricultural chemicals? Take a minute, maybe two, READ THE LABEL. Your chemical dealer, who is qualified to assist you, will be happy to answer your questions. Read The Label.
